SOCIETY AND OTHER INTERESTS OF WOMEN

Miss Mable Good, Woodward av., was guest of honor at a theater party at the Auditorium Friday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. Following the show a luncheon was served at the Philadelphia to the seven guests present. Included in the party were, Miss Good, Miss Leah Zuber, Miss Helen Seybold, Miss Marjorie Whitcomb, Miss Louise Tompette and her house guests, the Misses Catherine and Helen Hughes of Dowagiac, Mich.

Miss Olga Seegmuller, 530 Allen st., who leaves Wednesday for Chicago, to attend the normal school for physical training, and Miss Grace Burrows, 1936 Lincoln way W., whose birthday anniversary fell on Friday were complimented with a surprise party at the home of the latter. There were 25 guests present and an evening of games and dancing was enjoyed. Toward the close Mrs. Seegmuller and Mrs. Burrows served dairy refreshments.

Ray D. Buckles of the South Bend Ford Co., and Miss Ruth Hilleman of Walkerton, Ind., sprung a surprise on their friends Wednesday when they were married at St. Joseph, Mich.

Members of the Junco Act La-borers club entertained Thursday evening at the home of Miss Bernice Hollowell, 825 Park av., in honor of Miss Eleanor Galk, who leaves Monday to enter school at Madison, Wis. A short business meeting was held, when new officers were elected as follows: Miss Clara Brandt, president; Miss Bernice Hollowell, vice president; Miss Leona Gau, secretary; Miss Yoneta Krueger, treasurer; Miss Elsie Meyers, reporter. Miss Harriet Rinkrich was taken in as a new member. Music and dancing followed the business meeting after which light refreshments were served by the hostess. The club will meet Sept. 25 with Miss Gau, 747 Cottage drive av.

Mrs. Alvin D. Hodson, 815 S. St. Joseph st., was hostess yesterday afternoon to fifty members of the Ladies Aid society of the First Baptist church. The annual election of officers took place during the business meeting, resulting with the election of Mrs. James Findator as president, Mrs. W. K. Studebaker, first vice president; Mrs. Keltner, second vice president; Mrs. R. C. Turk, secretary; Mrs. White, treasurer; Mrs. D. M. Calvert, Mrs. M. Montgomery and Mrs. T. J. Kelly, were named trustees. The society adjourned after a social hour to meet Oct. 12 the place to be announced later.

An informal get together party was given last evening at the W. C. A. by the L. U. H. O. club to welcome Miss Carolyn Elizabeth Marsh as new extension secretary of the association. The evening was spent very pleasantly toasting marshmallows before the fire and talking over the plans of the year. Miss Marsh will begin her meetings at the various factories next week and expects to do some interesting work. No opening day has been decided for the club classes.

Mrs. Mary Chelminick, 509 Cleveland av., was a pleasant hostess Friday afternoon to the Mayflower club. The guests filled three tables at 500, the favors going to Mrs. Ann Ambos of Flint, Mich., who is visiting Mrs. Anna Larson, Mrs. C. M. Hildebrand and Mrs. E. E. Culver. A dainty two course luncheon was served at the small tables. The club will have another meeting Sept. 29.

The Mothers' club was entertained at an informal afternoon Friday at the home of Mrs. C. H. Murdock, 515 S. St. Joseph st. Light refreshments marked the afternoon's close. The members will have another meeting Sept. 29.

Announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of Miss Ethel Humphrey and Howard Hartman, both of this city. The ceremony is to be performed Tuesday at the home of the bride, 206 Stanfield st.

Miss Blanche Dunn, 203 S. Lafayette bldg., entertained with an informal family dinner Friday evening at the Nicholson inn. Places were laid for six guests at a table attractively arranged with clusters of garden flowers.

Mrs. M. W. Aker and son Mark, Berrien Springs, Mich., and Miss William Hipp of Jackson, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Zuber, 1102 Portage av., Thursday, and attended the fair.

IN MILADY'S BOUDOIR

BY GWEN SEARS.

BEAUTY AND CIGARETS.

Apart from the fact that the smoking of cigars is an unconventional habit for woman, and a side from all moral arguments, it is an injurious and beauty destroying practice.

The smoke drawn into the lungs causes them to become choked and stuffy. This results in improper breathing, and there are no end of troubles in store for milady who does not breathe deeply and sanely.

Smoking causes the teeth to become yellow. Could she loose a more valuable beauty asset than her white glistening teeth?

Smoking dulls the lustre of the eyes, and even causes them to become weak and watery. Is it worth the price?

Smoking upsets the digestive organs, and results in a soggy yellow complexion. Would milady sacrifice her pink cheeks just for the momentary pleasure of a bowing acquaintance with Madame Nicotine?

Smoking is injurious, unconventional, ill bred, and repulsive for a dainty gentlewoman. Can she afford to do it?

MARIE TELLS HOW TO FURNISH A DESK.

"Oh Marie, father has just had sent to the house a big desk and it is so beautiful, but of course looks rather plain without anything on it. I thought perhaps you would help me in selecting the desk fixings."

"Surely I will," answered Marie, "now what type is the desk?"

"Why I should say it was in sort of a Dutch style," said Marjorie.

"Well now let me see," mused Marie. "Suitable fittings for the big road table-desk of Dutch type are in cream colored wood pointed with figures of people in quaint array."

Both sides of the handle and the blade of a rather ponderous-looking paper knife are decorated with little black shoes and flat white capes.

playing tag.

"Yes and what else?" impatiently queried Marjorie as she jotted down the information almost faster than Marie could give it.

"The handles of the long shears are painted with figures of scolding housewives and village gossip, the Rip Van Winkle sort," continued Marie, "and there are sturdy, sturdy holding ink and muscage bottles decorated with Dutch scribbles or public letter writers. But most fascinating of all are the twine boxes with pictures of babies in arms, all of them wearing garments of brightest tones."

"You are such a help Marie," said Marjorie gratefully in departing. "Both sides of the handle and the blade of a rather ponderous-looking paper knife are decorated with little black shoes and flat white capes."

TWO SUITS ON NOTES

Banks Allege $3,777.87 is Still Left Unpaid.

Two suits for a total of $3,777.87 were filed against Frank Mayr, Jr., John D. Belfer, Cyrus E. Pattee, E. E. Ash, Frank L. Knapp and the Modern Specialties Manufacturing Co. by the South Bend National bank and the First National bank in circuit court Saturday morning. The money is due on notes given on loans amounting to about $20,000.

Contracts were made between the two banks and the defendants on Feb. 24, 1914, whereby the First National bank was to loan not more than $15,000 and the South Bend National bank was to loan not more than $10,000. F. G. Eberhart, George W. Blair and R. G. Page were on the notes, but on May 29, 1916, they paid their share. At that time $12,489.77 was due the First national bank and $10,154.41 was paid by Eberhart, Blair and Page. At the same time they paid the South Bend National bank $8,383.25 on $7,844.54, which was due. They were released from liability on the notes and the others are now being sued for the remaining amounts.

ANOTHER ONE OF THE FAIR'S BUSY WORKERS

J. K. STICKLE.

Much of the success of the displays in the cattle department at the Inter-State fair has been due to the efforts of J. K. Stickle, who is one of the superintendents out there. Mr. Stickle is another one of those men who find little time to talk; he is too busy seeing that things are run off according to schedule.
